ANNUAL REPORT 1967

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS:

Despite increased sales, 1967 was a disappointing year. Sales were $6,859,484, compared with $6,014,904 a year earlier. However, the company experienced a net loss of $410,265 as compared with a 1966 profit of $351,619 largely due to the losses incurred in unanticipated increased costs of engineering and manufacturing on a contract to supply locomotives for India.

The locomotives shipped under the contract met high standards and can be counted on to establish outstanding performance records. Furthermore, management expects that the design could open new markets that will provide an increasingly strong locomotive business, with particular emphasis on exports.

As of June 30, 1967, the company acquired the marine diesel engine business of Robert Morse Corporation Ltd. and the oustanding shares of its subsidiary, Dynamic Engineering Ltd. The acquisition brought into your company new engineering and marketing personnel with valuable experience and competence in this field.

The company's consolidated order backlog at year-end 1967 was $6,592,000 compared with $3,655,000 on December 31, 1966.

I was elected to the presidency of the company at the mid-point of the difficult year just passed. Since then, the company has undertaken a series of moves to strengthen its operations and to adapt them to the opportunities we see in Canada's future.
